

Process for International Coursework Review on the Graduate Degree Plan (GDP)

All transfer international coursework must be reviewed by Graduate Admissions in the Graduate School.

If a program/college submits a GDP where international coursework was not reviewed by the Graduate School first, it will be sent back to the program.